

Air Vice Marshal Warren McDonald, AM, CSC

Chief of Joint Capabilities

Air Vice Marshal Warren McDonald was born in Hay, NSW and joined the Royal Australian Air Force at the age of 15 as an apprentice motor transport fitter. In 1989, he was commissioned and underwent pilot training. He has 5000 hours on the Orion.

He has had the privilege of undertaking numerous commands within, Number 92 Wing and on deployment and as the Commander of Air Mobility Group.

In July 2015 he was promoted to Air Vice-Marshal and was privileged to serve as the Deputy Chief of Air Force. On 01 July 2017 Air Vice Marshal McDonald will be appointed as the Chief of Joint Capabilities within the Australian Defence Force Headquarters.

He is married to his very understanding wife, Sarah and they have two children.

